From Seascale Car Park walk northwards on the tarmac path next to the shore (toilets, cannon, play area to your right).

After passing the Boat Club the path turns right. Go under the railway line and turn sharp left to walk along the path between the garden walls and the wire fence.

After passing the last house, go through the wooden swing gate opposite and follow the signpost 'Public Footpath North'.

You are now on private property. Please read and obey the notice:

'Seascale Golf Club
Private Members Only
Beware of Flying Golf Balls'

Go along and down the path, keeping close to the wooden posts and later the stone wall. After a short sandy stretch, turn left at the wooden barrier and go under the railway (mind your head!).

Turn left and return to the car park along the path (part of Cumbria Coastal Way) or along the beach.
